In the Definitive Project Planning Phase, Developers Transition from Feasibility Studies to Test Conclusions with Market Negotiations, Conceptual Engineeings and Selection of Advisors, Engineers, Financiers and Constructors, Etc..

The logo for Definitive Planning consists of the company name in a bold, sans-serif font above a large, stylized black arrow pointing to the right. The arrow has a textured, metallic appearance with highlights and shadows.
